K. David Boyer, Jr.

Senior Advisor to the Administrator
Public-Private Partnerships

K. David Boyer, Jr. is the Senior Advisor to the Administrator Henrietta H. Fore on Public- Private Partnerships.

Prior to his appointment, K. David Boyer, Jr. led GlobalWatch Technologies, Inc., a leading information security consulting and software engineering firm. As founder and chief executive officer, he has 25 years of experience building companies and expertise in information management, information assurance and anti-terrorism services.

Active in the banking community since 1994, Mr. Boyer serves on the Board of Directors, BB&T Bank, Washington Metro Region, one of the top financial holding companies in the country. He was recognized in April 2008 as one of five national directors of BB&T for his outstanding contributions to this banking institution.

In 2006, Mr. Boyer was elected to the Board of Directors for the Chief Executive Organization (CEO), an organization of 2000 global leaders who are distinguished leaders in their businesses or industries, governments or local communities. This organization provides opportunities for international networking, educational and enrichment experiences. Mr. Boyer was the Chairman for a CEO seminar on the Seven Revolutions that was held in October 2007.

During his thirteen year tenure on the Board of Directors for the National Legal Center for the Public Interest, Mr. Boyer was tapped by Fred F. Fielding, Chairman of the Center and White House Counsel, to chair the Center's Development Committee. He was also the organization's Treasurer for three years.

On the state level, Mr. Boyer was appointed by Governor Mark Warner in 2002 to the Commonwealth of Virginia's Treasury Board. His appointment was renewed by Governor Tim Kaine in 2006. The Treasury Board supervises the investments of state funds, the financing of state buildings and approves the terms, issuing and sales of certain bonds.

A graduate of Pennsylvania State University, Mr. Boyer was recognized in 2000 as a Distinguished Alumni, the highest honor the University bestows on its graduates. Mr. Boyer was a member of the Executive Council for the Pennsylvania State University Alumni Council, elected to the Council in 2001 and again in 2004. In April 2007, he was recognized as the Alumni of the Year and in July assumed the position of president of the Society of Distinguished Alumni for PSU, an organization of the Distinguished Alumni Award recipients.
